Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to submit my application for the Product Manager role. After reviewing your job requirements and responsibilities on LinkedIn, it's clear that you're looking for a candidate that is familiar with the responsibilities associated with this role and can perform them confidently while learning. I have over 6 years of experience working as a software engineer and 3 years plus of experience working as a Product Manager where I have accumulated extensive skills relevant to this role through practice and certification courses. I have experience in Education, AgriTech, Content Publishing and FinTech.

As an experienced Product Manager, I have a proven track record of successfully leading cross-functional teams to develop and launch innovative products that meet customer needs and drive business growth. My expertise in agile methodologies, user-centered design, and data-driven decision-making enables me to effectively manage product roadmaps, prioritize features, and deliver high-quality products on time and within budget. Additionally, my excellent communication, software engineering and stakeholder management skills allow me to collaborate with executives, engineers, designers, and other teams to ensure alignment and achieve product goals. I invite you to review my detailed achievements in the attached resume.

I would like to learn more about your needs for the role. Given the chance, I would be a valuable asset for the following line of projects and add to the company's success.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you. I can be reached at +233541718326 or akotoro22@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
Roberta Mawunyo Akoto.
